Updated figures 04-2015

Total Turnover:
2012: $ 3,300 million dollars
2013: $ 3,400 million dollars
2014: $ 3,200 million dollars

Total exports:
2012: $ 375 million dollars ($ 270 million dollars are from Argentina)
2013: $ 340 million dollars ($ 250 million dollars are from Argentina)
2014: $ 320 million dollars ($ 220 million dollars are from Argentina)

Investments:
2015: $ 100 million dollars

Industrial plants:
40 manufacturing plants (30 in Argentina, five in Brazil, three in Chile, one in Peru and one in Mexico).

Commercial offices:
Argentina, Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador, Spain, the USA, Mexico, Paraguay, China, Uruguay and Venezuela.

Collaborators:
It has 20,000 employees (12,400 working in Argentina, 4,100 in Brazil, 1,700 in Chile, 1,000 in Mexico, 300 in Peru and the rest in offices in other countries).

Main attributes:
- Arcor is the largest food company in Argentina,
- Arcor is the Argentine group with the largest number of open markets in the world,
- Arcor is the world’s leading manufacturer of hard candies,
- Bagley Latinoamérica S.A., Arcor and Danone’s joint venture for the cookies & crackers, alfajores and cereal bars business,
- Main exporter of confectionery of Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Peru,
- Daily production of 3 million kilograms (6.6 million pounds).